

---

Weekly Travel Industry Insight

---

COMFORT OF CYCLISTS – UTRECHT, MUNSTER, ANTWERP ON THE TOP

A study conducted in 90 cities around the world focused on the comfort of cyclists and the conditions they have. It was revealed that the situation is much harder for cyclists in the largest urban areas.

Read More
on our website

---

THE STATUE OF LIBERTY GETS A NEW MUSEUM

For more than 130 years, the Statue of Liberty has stood in the port of New York. About 4.3 million people visit the site every year, but for the lack of space, not everyone can go into the pedestal. Now, for the...

Read More
on our website

CHINA WILL BE THE FIRST OUTBOUND TRAVEL MARKET

According to a study by Euromonitor International, tourists from mainland China will overtake Americans to become the largest international outbound travel market. The number of Chinese citizens traveling abroad...

Read More
on our website

---

FLORIDA BEATING RECORDS IN THE NUMBER OF TOURISTS

The state of Florida received in the first three months of 2019 a record number of tourists – 35.7 million, which is 5.8% more than in the same period of 2018, reported the state governor, Ron DeSantis.

Read More
on our website

---

TURKEY: 100 BILLION DOLLARS IN TOURISM REVENUES BY 2023

The tourism revenues in Turkey could reach 100 billion dollars by 2023 with the digitization of tourism enterprises, according to the managing director of a Turkish technology and tourism company.

Read More
on our website

---

OVERTOURISM: SOME DESTINATIONS ARE NO LONGER ABLE TO COPE WITH VISITORS

Too much tourism kills the industry? Faced with a massive influx of visitors, several destinations around the world decided to take measures to limit the number of tourists and thus to fight overtourism.

Read More
on our website

---

FRANKFURT: HOTELS FACE STAFF SHORTAGE

More and more new hotels open in Frankfurt every year. The industry finds it increasingly difficult to find employees.

Read More
on our website

CRUISE TOURISM IN MOROCCO GRADUALLY WEAKENING

Morocco is no longer on the radar of the world's cruise giants. The figures are alarming: barely 227,000 cruise passengers docked at Moroccan ports in 2018, compared to almost twice as many in 2010.

Read More
on our website

