

Tourism Review
NEWS
Respected Voice of Tourism

Weekly Travel Industry Insight

SPAIN: 1.4% MORE CRUISE SHIP PASSENGERS IN THE FIRST QUARTER

Spanish ports recorded 2.76 million cruise ship passengers in the first quarter of the year, a 1.38% increase over the same period of 2018 according to data published by Puertos del Estado, revealing that 1,131...

Read More
on our website

TOURISM SECTOR IS THE ONE MOST AFFECTED BY THE SHARING ECONOMY

The sharing economy is booming, and classic tour operators are getting into increasingly disadvantageous situations. One of the flagships of the economy is Airbnb. The company founded eleven years ago has become...

Read More
on our website

ATTITUDES TO GAY TOURISM ARE CHANGING WORLDWIDE

Gay tourism has become a hot topic in many countries that plan to invest in the LGBT market. Especially in Asia, the sector has been discussed since Taiwan became the first country in Asia to legalize same-sex marriage....

Read More
on our website

CHILEAN TOURISM AUTHORITIES INTRODUCE NEW PLACES OF INTEREST

After several months of work, the Committee of Tourism Ministers declared the regions of Lonquimay, the Chiloé Archipelago, Torres del Paine, and Cape Horn as places of interest, adding these to the 32 already...

Read More
on our website

THE MEDITERRANEAN SEEKS MORE SUSTAINABLE TOURISM OPTIONS

Mediterranean countries are facing a double threat: preserving their natural resources and guaranteeing the quality of life of citizens without giving up on tourism as a source of wealth and a way to boost the economy....

Read More
on our website

BRAZILIAN TOURISM NUMBERS STAGNATING

Approximately 6.62 million international tourists visited Brazil in 2018. The number is basically the same as it was over the last three years, showing that the tourist flow has stagnated. To compare, Argentina,...

Read More
on our website

MADEIRA TOURISM CONCERNED ABOUT BREXIT

Brexit and the devaluation of the pound are reasons for concern in Madeira tourism, the archipelago's main economic agent. Last year, the United Kingdom lost the first position in the ranking of the main tourist...

Read More
on our website

ECUADOR TO INCREASE THE NUMBER OF FOREIGN TOURISTS

The Government of Ecuador expects to surpass 1.6 million foreign tourists in 2019, increasing its international arrivals by 15% in comparison to last year's figure (1.4 million), taking into account the positive...

Read More
on our website

AMSTERDAM: FAKE MARRIAGE AS A SOLUTION TO OVERTOURISM?

A new book and website called "Untourist Guide to Amsterdam" aims to connect local residents with the visitors – through, among other activities, fake weddings. The ensuing one-day honeymoon of the visitor...

Read More
on our website

www.tourism-review.com

